

CELEBRATING
125
YEARS

Our Celebration Continues!

Over the years, many photos have been taken of St. Paul's and its people. Here is a selection of photos featuring the building of the church on Carridale and its later expansion.

Groundbreaking in 1968.

Architect's rendering of the new church. This view is looking at the church from the back parking lot and the main entrance to the sanctuary.

The sanctuary under construction.

Placing the Bell in its new home.

The new church, completed. Note that the area where the pastor's office and other offices is now did not exist then. Check how thick the original exterior wall is.

The postcard photo of the new church with a nice lawn and young oak trees.
